Dear Adventurous Women,

I'm excited about our new schedule of AFW activities for March through August 2006. Our guides have assembled a wonderful variety of hikes, backpacking workshops and weekends, bike rides and get-away vacations. I urge you to come join us this year — take advantage of your membership and try some of our outdoor adventures.

So many of you rarely join us on the trail. You mean to — you joined because it sounded like something you wanted to do. Perhaps time just gets away from you, or you hesitate for other reasons. You may be uncertain of your hiking ability, or you may be hesitant to come alone. You may be uncomfortable with directions, unsure that you'll find the meeting place. Call me or call the hike leader if you have questions. We can help. If the issue is driving, pull out a map and check it against our directions. If it still doesn't make sense, contact us. We'll help you determine the best way to "get here from there."

We can explain the level of difficulty of a hike so that you will be able to choose one that's in keeping with your abilities. This year we're offering not only a lot of easy to strenuous hikes, but also several hikes geared to the beginner. We're offering a new workshop this spring called "Getting Ready to Hike." We'll go over the essentials — what to bring, what to wear, and what to expect on your first outing. We'll go on a short hike together, and then stop at a local outdoor store so you can see first hand what equipment is available. Finally, if you don't want to come alone, bring a friend, a neighbor, or a co-worker. Remember, guests come free on their first hike. But rest assured, whether you come alone or with someone, you will be welcomed.

We live in a congested area and are often overwhelmed by our hectic pace. Hiking is a wonderful way to escape. Getting out in the woods is not only invigorating, it is calming. Personally, it helps me put things in perspective, and allows me to slow down. We are fortunate that we live in an area that is surrounded by acres and acres of beautiful preserved parkland, and thanks to the diligent work of the NY/NJ Trail Conference and the ADK and AMC hiking clubs, we're able to hike on these well-maintained trails just a short distance from our homes.

Take advantage of what our area offers. Get out and enjoy the woods and the camaraderie of other adventurous women. We're here to help. That's one of the things that makes our hiking club unique. All YOU have to do is sign up.

mind the path ... Betty

MacEvoy Trail Spring Clean-up

Ramapo Mountain State Forest, Oakland, NJ Saturday, March 25, 2006

Always Helping Mother Earth. Slowly, but surely, spring will be arriving and it will be time for AFW's semi-annual trail clean-up hike on the MacEvoy Trail in Ramapo Mt. State Forest. All AFW members and friends are welcome to attend this easy hike and clean-up on Saturday, March 25, 2006 from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. Please wear hiking boots and bring a pair of gloves and garbage bags. Come out and have fun for a good cause!

PUZZLE CORNER ... On the Trail

You can find your way on the trail with the help of fellow hikers, a trail map and a compass. But try finding these hiking words on your own in the grid below. They read vertically, horizontally or diagonally, forwards or backwards. Then, make a copy of your solution and send it to Joanne Carrubba by March 20. First correct solution received will win a prize!

Return of City Paths

Be sure to join us on our day-excursions to explore two beautiful spots in New York City this spring:

- New York Central Park with its gardens, fountains, statues, water falls, lakes, a castle and much more.
- City Island, a small community with a rich nautical history, just beyond the Pelham Bay Park in the Bronx, surrounded by the waters of Long Island Sound and Eastchester Bay.

We will catch our breath and enjoy lunch at a local restaurant.

ARMCHAIR ADVENTURES

It's raining, it's snowing, it's too cold, it's too hot ... all good reasons not to venture out. Why not curl up in your most comfortable chair and let these books take you to places, experiences and adventures far and wide?
